

BOARD CHARTER

June 2025

1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 This board charter (Board Charter) sets out the role and responsibilities of the Board of Directors ("the Board") of IperionX Limited ("IperionX" or "the Company").

2. ROLE OF THE BOARD

- 2.1 The Board of Directors is responsible for guiding and monitoring IperionX Limited on behalf of shareholders by whom they are elected and to whom they are accountable.
- 2.2 The Board is responsible for, and has the authority to determine, all matters relating to the strategic direction, policies, practices, establishing goals for management and the operation of the Company.
- 2.3 The monitoring and ultimate control of the business of the Company is vested in the Board. The Board's primary responsibility is to oversee the Company's business activities and management for the benefit of the Company's shareholders. The specific responsibilities of the Board include:
 - a. appointment, evaluation, rewarding and if necessary, the removal of the Managing Director and Chief Financial Officer (or equivalent), Non- Executive Director, Officers and senior management personnel;
 - b. in conjunction with members of the senior management team, to develop corporate objectives, strategies and operations plans and to approve and appropriately monitor plans, new investments, major capital and operating expenditures, use of capital, acquisitions, divestitures and major funding activities;
 - c. establishing appropriate levels of delegation to senior management to allow them to manage the business efficiently;
 - d. monitoring actual performance against planned performance expectations and reviewing operating information at a requisite level to understand, at all times, the financial and operating conditions of the Company;
 - e. monitoring the performance of senior management, including the implementation of strategy, and ensuring appropriate resources are available;

- f. identifying areas of significant business risk and ensure that the Company is appropriately positioned to manage those risks;
- g. overseeing the management of safety, occupational health and environmental matters;
- h. satisfying itself that the financial statements of the Company fairly and accurately set out the financial position and financial performance of the Company for the period under review;
- i. satisfying itself that there are appropriate reporting systems and controls in place to assure the Board that proper operational, financial, compliance, and internal control processes are in place and functioning appropriately;
- j. ensuring that appropriate internal and external audit arrangements are in place and operating effectively;
- k. having a framework in place to help ensure that the Company acts legally and responsibly on all matters consistent with the code of conduct; and
- l. reporting accurately to shareholders, on a timely basis.

2.4 The Board has established Audit, Compensation and Nominating/Governance Committees, each with its own charter. The committees have the following responsibilities:

- a. The primary function of the Audit Committee is to oversee and assist the Board in fulfilling its responsibilities relating to (a) accounting, financial reporting, and audit practices of the Company and its subsidiaries, (b) the external auditor's qualifications and independence, and (c) the performance of the company's internal audit function.
- b. The primary function of the Compensation Committee is to oversee, and to assist the Board in fulfilling its responsibilities relating to the Company's compensation policies.
- c. The primary function of the Nominating-Governance Committee is to oversee, and to assist the Board in fulfilling its responsibilities relating to Board member recruitment, succession planning and overseeing and improving the Company's governance policies and practices.

2.5 Each director has the right to seek independent professional advice on matters relating to his position as a director of the Company at the Company's expense, subject to the prior approval of the Board Chair, which shall not be unreasonably withheld.

- 2.6 In the event of a conflict of interest or where a potential conflict of interest may arise, involved directors will, unless the remaining directors resolve otherwise, withdraw from deliberations concerning the matter.
- 2.7 In accordance with the constitution of the Company, directors (other than the Managing Director) must offer themselves for re-election by shareholders at least every 3 years. The Board does not specify a maximum term for which a director may hold office.
- 2.8 The responsibility for the day-to-day operation and administration of the Company is delegated by the Board to the Managing Director. The Board ensures that the Managing Director and the management team is appropriately qualified and experienced to discharge their responsibilities and has in place procedures to assess the performance of the Managing Director and executive directors.
- 2.9 The roles of Board Chair and Managing Director are not combined. The Managing Director is accountable to the Board for all authority delegated to the position.
- 2.10 The Board Chair is responsible for leading the Board, setting its strategic direction and directly supervising the Managing Director.
- 2.11 The Lead Independent Director is responsible for ensuring the Board's independence, facilitating its effectiveness, and presiding over executive sessions of independent directors.
- 2.12 While there is a clear division between the responsibilities of the Board and management, the Board is responsible for ensuring that management's objectives and activities are aligned with the expectations and risks identified by the Board. The Board has a number of mechanisms in place to ensure this is achieved including:
- a. Board approval and monitoring of a strategic plan;
 - b. approval of annual budgets and monitoring performance against budget; and
 - c. procedures are in place to incorporate regular update presentations on financials, operations, employee and human capital, risk management, commercial developments, and other relevant performance subjects, as appropriate.
- 2.13 The Board has accepted the following definition of an Independent Director. An independent Director is a non-executive Director (i.e. is not a member of management) and:
- a. holds less than 5% of the voting shares of the Company and is not an officer of, or otherwise associated directly or indirectly with, a shareholder of more than 5% of the voting shares of the Company;
